

evening of prayer

November 22

- Praise God for all His mercies, blessings, faithfulness and protection. – Psalm 103: 1-2
 - Please pray into areas of repentance, acknowledging our sins, lack of humility and lack of prayer. Our repentance will lay the groundwork for restoration.
 - Please pray for the Centre for the City, including compassionate ministries, ministry to new Canadians and Monday Night Evangelism as these areas prepare for their transitions to the expanded space in the next few weeks
 - Please pray for those we serve in vulnerable populations for whom transition is hard - please pray that they see that more space means more opportunities for community
 - Please pray as we focus on the next season of ministry and our desire to introduce more people to Jesus and help them become His devoted followers
 - For those involved in training and recruiting volunteers for increased needs; please pray that we will have the people we need to do effective and powerful ministry as the Holy Spirit leads
 - Please pray for our Christmas Hampers project for 2023! Our focus is relationship and discipleship and we are excited for connections we will be able to continue in the new space !
 - Please pray for the Persecuted Church the world over. Christians around the world are suffering for their faith and many face abuse, loss of their homes and violence.
 - Pray that through all the trials and tribulations that the church of Jesus Christ will stand firm in their faith and many would come to know Jesus as their Lord and Master.
 - Pray for those who have lost their loved ones and homes in the wars, fires and floods in different parts of our world. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.
 - Pray for people who have lost their jobs or who are going through financial difficulties, bereavement, or children going astray.
 - Pray for those who are going through various illnesses and who have been laid up for a long time. That the Lord would touch, heal and restore.
 - Pray for the prayer movements around our country that would cause a revival to break out that would impact the lives of many, who do not have a personal relationship with Jesus.
- BUILD - Pray that God would provide the necessary funds to cover the outstanding amount.
